

Lower Key Stage 2 Homework
Spring Term

Linked to our topic of 'Predators' we would like you to choose from the following list of what you would like to work on at home. You should choose one or two projects to complete ready to share these at the end of the Spring term.

Make a non-fiction book about a predatory animal.	Write a short, imaginative story or poem from the point of view of either a predator or its prey.	Write a set of instructions for how to care for your ultimate predator!
Make a predator glossary to explain all the specialist vocabulary from this topic.	Devise a 'What am I?' quiz about predators and try it out on your friends and family. How many questions does it take from them to get to the right answer?	Learn how to spell the names of some of the weird and wonderful predators of the world - the weirder the better!
Research a predator from each of the animal groups: mammals, birds insects, fish and amphibians.	If you could be a predator for the day, what kind of predator would you be, and why? Where would you live? What features would help you hunt, catch and kill your prey?	Use the web to research what different predators eat. Create food chains for a variety of different predators using materials and tools of your choice.

Reading Homework

Can you read any books linked to our topic, 'Predators'?
Complete two of the activities below in your reading homework book.

Find five interesting words from your book. Write down what each means. Then use each word in a sentence of your own	Make up at least three quiz questions about your book. Don't forget to give the answers!	Copy out three, or more, sentences or phrases you really liked in this book. Why did you like each of them?
Draw a picture of your favourite part of the book. Write a sentence about what is happening in the picture. Why did you choose to draw this bit?	Use a whole page to draw a poster advertising your chosen book. Make sure you write on the poster why people should read it	Choose two books by the same author and compare them. Write a list of similarities and differences.
Write an alternative ending to the story.	Write a summary of the story in no more than 200 words.	Finish the sentence 'I like the way the author...' then explain your thinking.

We look forward to sharing your homework in school.
Please bring it by Monday 11th March.
