Class 6 York Army Museum

Dear Parents and carers,

As part of our WOW for our Summer term topic, Britain at War, Class 6 are going to the York Army Museum to begin their learning journey into British warfare. The museum has a variety of exhibits that span 300 years of British military history.

The details of the activity are as follows:

Venue: York Army Museum

Date: Monday 8th April

Time: Leaving school at 9.30am, returning to school for 12.30pm

Lunch arrangements: Children will return to school for their lunch.

Clothing required: School uniform and waterproof coat

Cost: There is no cost to this trip. As this trip is out of the local area, we need written consent via the reply slip attached. Please could you return this slip by Friday 15th March.

We would also be grateful for volunteers to join us on this trip. Please indicate this on the consent form attached.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Hughes and Mrs Hartley
