Geography	Locate Mexico on a map and discuss about climate and correlation to the equator.	Use the web and satellite mapping tools to locate and draw a sketch map of Mexico, showing aspects of its human and physical geography, including major cities, surrounding seas, mountain ranges, airports, and tourist resorts.	Using map and aerial footage draw a sketch map of the country, showing aspects of its human and physical geography, including major cities, surrounding seas, mountain ranges, airports, and tourist resorts.	Use maps, atlases and globes to locate the Chihuahuan Desert. Work in groups to learn about the animal and plant species found there, what the climate is like, the people who live there and the difficulties they face.	Use a range of non-fiction books to find out about daily life in Mexico, especially what it's like for children of a similar age. Answer questions such as: What is a typical day like for a Mexican child? What are schools like? What meals do families like to eat? Compare their findings with the human geography of a region in the UK and one in Europe.
